* 48 Q.—SRI A. A. RASHEED: Will the Hon. the Minister for Home be pleased to state whether the Government are aware of the frequent traffic regulations changed by the Police, causing inconvenience to the motorists and the road users in the City of Madras?

THE HON. SRI M. BHAKTAVATSALAM: Traffic regulations in Madras City have not been frequently changed by the Police. Only certain restrictions like declaring certain roads as for one way traffic, and prohibition of certain type of traffic on certain roads have been imposed during the last one year.

SRI A. A. RASHEED: Is the Hon. Minister aware that some streets which are under one way traffic in one month come under two way traffic in the next month and again under one way traffic in the third month and so on thus causing annoyance to the road-users?

THE HON. SRI M. BHAKTAVATSALAM: It may be of some annoyance but the hon. Member should appreciate that in some of the cases certain experiments are necessary.
